Speech is a great blessing, but it can also be a great curse, for while it helps us to make over intentions & desires known to our fellows, it can also, if we use it carelessly, make our attitude completely misunderstood. A slip of the tongue, the use of an unusual word, or an ambiguous word & so on, may create an enemy where we hoped to win a friend. Again different classes of people use different vocabularies and ordinary speech of an educated man may strike to an uneducated listener as showing pride, unwittingly we may use a word, which bears a different meaning to our listener from what it does to men of our own class. Thus speech is not a gift to use lightly without thought, but one which demands careful handling, only a fool will express himself alike to all kinds and conditions of men.
