6. When I go into a stranger's library, I wonder round the bookshelves to learn what sort of person stranger is, who becomes in I feel that I know the key of his mind & the range of his interest. A house without books is a house without character, no matter how rich of the person rugs. These only tell you whether he has a lot of money, but the books tell you whether he has got a mind as well. It is a question of money that we do not buy books. I repeat that books are the cheapest as well as the best part of the equipment of a few dollars. Nearly all the best literature in the world is at your command at two dollars a volume. For 100 dollars you can get library of fifty books. Even if you do not read them yourself, they are priceless
